Dear Diary,
 An incredible thing happened today. I was outdoors, minding my own business, when a man appeared. He had a very angelic, holy look. My husband, _____, was not with me at the time. The man began to speak to me and told me amazing news! He said I will have a _____! I'll need to keep some restrictions, though, because the child will be a _____ from before birth! I won't be able to eat _____ or drink _____ before he's born, and neither will the child once he's born. We are also not supposed to cut his _____. And then – this part is really exciting – he said that this miracle child will be the one who will begin to save our people from our tormentors, the _____!

The man didn't tell me where he was from, and I didn't ask his name. He disappeared as mysteriously as he had arrived. Of course, I ran and told my husband, _____, about it right away. He was just as amazed as I was, but I think he's disappointed about not having met the man and not hearing the news from him himself.

I'm so full of excitement about this incredible news and can't wait to see how it all unfolds!

Good night,

באלין

Dear Diary,

Today was even more shocking and miraculous than yesterday, if you can believe that! I overheard my husband praying for the man from yesterday to return, and he did!

It happened when I was in the field. Again, _____ was not with me, but this time I hurried right away to fetch him. Once I told him that the man was back he ran with me back to the spot where I had left him standing. The conversation went something like this:

_____ : "Are you the man that spoke to my wife yesterday?"

_____ : "It is I."

_____ : "May your words come true! Now, what are the rules for the child?"

_____ : "Everything I told your wife yesterday, you should be careful about." (That made me feel pretty good, and I think it helped my husband feel that I was trustworthy. I know he trusts me, but it's always nice to hear it from an outsider!)

Then he repeated the rules: "_____."

The next part was really unusual. _____ asked the man if he could delay a little longer, as he wanted to _____.

The man responded that he would not eat it, which had us confused. Nevertheless, _____ asked him, "What is your _____?" and he responded "Why do you ask? It is hidden." Such a mystifying response!

Anyway, we brought out the offering and put it on the large rock that's in the front yard. This was when things became even more shocking. A _____ descended onto the rock and the mysterious visitor _____!

We realized immediately that the visitor was not an ordinary man, or even a prophet – he was a _____! We fell to the ground in awe and shock. My husband was in something of a daze, and he was saying, "We're going to _____!"

I tried to reassure him, as I believe that we are only beginning an incredible journey, as the news we received indicated. But we can only pray and wait and see what happens next! I'm so excited to meet this baby that we've been hoping for after so many years. I'll have to start thinking of an appropriate name for such a special child. Hashem is truly wondrous!

Good night,

צפאני
